

Week 14 - How to Study the Bible

This last week in the Deep Convictions study guide was devoted to using a study of Colossians as an example of the kind of study that you can do of different biblical books on your own going forward. Share how you felt about the study you did this week?

What outside material did you rely on to get some background about the Letter to the Colossians?

What message about the nature of Christ did you find Paul wanting to communicate to these disciples?

Why is that message just as important today as it was for them?

What amazing “good news” do you find in Colossians 1:22-23?

What effect does the message of this passage have on you?

Colossians 1:28-2:15

What passion did Paul have? How does God want to use you in the same way?

How do you feel about allowing others to help you move toward being “fully mature in Christ?”

Colossians 3:1-17

What is the large “big picture” message of a passage like this?

Is there anything here that is particularly challenging for you?

Colossians 4:2-6

What were your takeaways from this passage particularly regarding your role as an ambassador for Christ?

Pray together.
